Upon admissions, a student is enrolled into the Bachelor of Laws programme and will major in Law. If the student wishes, he/she may elect a second major from any other schools – from business, accountancy, economics, information systems and social sciences to broaden his/her knowledge and perspectives.

Possible second majors to choose from include Arts & Culture Management (offered by SOSS), Advanced Business Technology (Information Security & Assurance) (offered by SIS) or Accounting (Data Analytics) (offered by SOA).

SMU continues to refresh and introduce new majors. In 2016, two new majors were launched – Entrepreneurship Major offered by LKCSB and Politics, Law and Economics (PLE) Major offered by SOSS.

70% of our students take a double degree or second majors. Students can choose from 15 double degree combinations and 41 second majors with over 300 possible combinations.
